

Who are you, where are you based and what do you do?

I am Jennifer Domingo, based at the London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine Library where I work as a library assistant.

What do you most enjoy about your job?

I like the way my job keeps up with the ever-changing technological advances while remaining true to the traditional roles of an academic library in assisting the delivery of information services.

What motivates you in your work?

That my operational role assists the bigger picture when delivering information and facilitating good user services.

How has/can the M25 Consortium support you in your career?

I am grateful for the opportunities to visit other libraries and collections.

What would it surprise people to know about you?

That I'm a space nerd.

Complete the sentence:

If I wasn't working in a library I would be...running or helping to run an animal sanctuary because it suits my crazy cat lady vibe.
